Mr. Robert L. Phillips

Pt. Pleasant,
West Virginia

Dear Larry:

How pleasantly surprised I was last week to see you at the Midwestern Children's Home meeting. I know you made a sacrifice to come, especially driving the distance you did and taking off a full day; but I know that you were an encouragement to the good work the brethren are doing with the home. I think of you often and cherish the memory of working with and being associated with many in your family. I know Walter would be so happy if he were alive to know of the good work you are doing. God bless you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
